

GREAT NEWS from the new WAGS IT Manager, Christine Harris. The eight computers that were damaged during the recent electrical storm have now all been replaced and have joined the five new computers that were purchased earlier in the year. We now have a full suite of fast computers to help WAGS members with their research!

All time restrictions on computer use have been lifted. We look forward to seeing you back at WAGS during our Research Room opening hours.