Western Ancestor - March 2019

Celebrating 161 issues, our journal this month honours some of our past Presidents whose commitment epitomises the hundreds of people who have given their time, effort and ideas to Family History WA.

This issue of Western Ancestor is full of contributions from members, including a fascinating story about WA's bridge-building past, and an exploration of the new DNA technology is helping to rediscover the ancient roots of Australia's Aboriginal people.

Please note that there is an error in the Membership per annum section on the inside back cover. The new Single Membership rate is $75, as indicated on your renewal form, and in the online shop.

Members can browse or download the electronic copy in the Member's Only Section \(you will have to log in\) of this website under the Journal 2019 menu item.

The electronic version is copyright and exclusive to WAGS members.
