

New Associate Members

Welcome to the Old and the New

Two new Local History collections libraries from both ends of the city have joined WAGS as Associate Members.

To the south in the old port City of Fremantle, the Local History Library has joined WAGS.

To the North, in the new and thriving City of Joondalup, the Local and Family History Library has also joined WAGS.

To view the Associate Member pages, click on the following links, or use the menu items at the top and the bottom of the website.

Fremantle Local History Collection

Joondalup Local and Family History Collection

Click the following links for details and benefits on becoming an Associate Member of WAGS -

About Associate Members

-

Associate Membership Benefits

Genealogy just got better for the local community in these two cities.