

Initial Meeting - WAGS Military Interest Group

There has been significant interest in forming a Military Special Interest Group that would cover any thing Military - militia, army, airforce, navy, any country, any battle, active service, peacekeeping, resistance; service is not restricted to Australia or Western Australia, or in any specific time frame.

Most people would have someone in their family tree who has fought for their country in some capacity and finding and interpreting records can be incredibly confusing.

This initial meeting is to determine if we should proceed with the proposal to form this group and present our request to Management at their October meeting. We will discuss a suitable day and time for quarterly meetings and establish a small committee to be convenor(s) and website organiser.

We will also discuss the parameters of the SIG in more detail (being careful not to encroach on the Enrolled Pensioner Guards area of interest).

Everyone is welcome, whether you have expressed an interest previously or not.
