

Latest from our Guest Blogger - They came on a boat...

Our Genealogy Curmudgeon is showing their frustration at the terminology used by family historians.

Short but sweet, or is that bitter...

Curmudgeons are a special breed of the human condition, generally mistaken for a grump. Family history and genealogy do not escape their attention even here in Perth Western Australia.

WAGS very own guest blogger The Genealogy Curmudgeon is providing a bit of light relief with their latest blog item - They came on a boat and other items of a curmudgenous nature.

Stay tuned for future items...
