

Associate member form (temp)

 WAGS Associate Member application nov 2016.pdf

There are many resources to assist you in getting the most out of The Master Genealogist

Publishing TMG Projects Using Second Site, a presentation to the November 2014 meeting

 TMG & Second Site 649.88 KB

Sources and Citations using TMG, a presentation to the May 2014 meeting

 Sources & Citations using TMG 983.68 KB

An Illustrated Guide to using TMG Book Manager

Book Manager is a useful tool for preparing flag filter groups and updating them as your data increases. Most people do this with Focus Groups, however these either have to be rebuilt when additional people are added or the filter flag has to be checked every time a new person is added to the data set. Book Manager semi-automates this.

TMG Book Manager Guide \(677.75 KB \)

▣ The Master Genealogist - TMG - for Beginners, a presentation to the February 2014 meeting

▣ TMG for Beginners \(2.18 MB\)

An Introduction to The Master Genealogist - TMG, a presentation to the November 2013 meeting

An Introduction to TMG \(1.48 MB \)

TMG

The Master Genealogist software is available as a 30 day free trial from www.whollygenes.com

/

Second Site

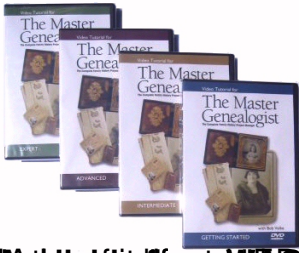

Second Site creates web pages or CDs from your TMG database. It generates either narrative or grid style person pages, a master index, a surname index, and source pages in HTML format. Great for sharing your data with family members.

Current version 5.3 Build 2 is available at www.johncardinal.com/ss/index.htm

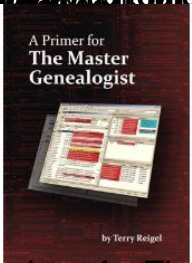

TMG Utility

TMG Utility is a powerful database modification tool for TMG projects., The features available in TMG Utility complement the capabilities of TMG itself. People who have recently converted to TMG from another genealogy product will find a number of features designed to help them take advantage of TMG features. It is available at www.johncardinal.com/tmgutil/

DVDs

Available from the MAAGS Library or the National Archives in the UK. For more information, see the 'Getting Started' page on the 'Genealogy' page.

This book is a good starting point for anyone who is new to genealogy. It provides a level of detail that helps TMG users to get started with the software.

Available from the MAAGS Library. The Master Genealogist, compiled by Lee Hoffman with contributions