

The Military Special Interest Group is coordinating the Western Australian Military Digital Library, a project digitising military records with a connection to Western Australia and making them freely available via a public website. Go to WA Military Digital Library for more details.

You can read the most recent Bulletin: WAMDL Bulletin Aug 2021