

State Library of WA to the rescue

Our super State Library, although its doors are closed, is still open online. And for Family History researchers there is a wealth of resources to tap in to.

Eresources Ancestry Library, British Library Newspapers, The West Australian, hundreds of ebooks and films can be accessed with your State Library card.

Haven't got one? Membership is free for all WA residents. You can register online here.

Not a member? Check the Catalogue for archives, many of which are being digitised - photographs, maps especially.

You will also find these in Trove now.

Can't find what you want? Ask a librarian.

And don't forget their great Facebook and Instagram accounts for regular posts.
