

FAMILY HISTORY WA Special Interest Groups - are there to help members share their experiences with other members. All FHWA members are free to attend a special interest group meeting at least once to see if the group meets their needs.

For many members they are one of the most important benefits of being in FHWA. Regular meetings give members the chance to share their experiences with each other. If you decide to join the group, you may need to pay a small donation to cover newsletter costs, refreshments, etc.

Check with the Group Convenor for meeting times and current fees, or have a look at FAMILY HISTORY WA Events for the next meetings.

Each Special Interest Group has its own page, which is open to the public from the Interest Groups menu.
